ABOUT JAMES TWYMAN

James Twyman is an internationally renowned author and musician who travels the world performing "The Peace Concert" in areas of violence and discord, including the Middle East, South Africa, Ireland, and the Balkans. He has performed for government officials, humanitarian organizations and the United Nations. James has an international reputation for bringing millions of people together in prayer to influence the process of peace in countries torn apart by hatred and war. He also founded the "Cloth of Many Colors" peace project which weaves the prayers of hundreds of thousands of people worldwide into a quilt nearly a mile long. This amazing quilt has been to the United Nations, the Pentagon and the U.S. Capitol. A portion of the quilt will be on display at the Peace Concert, in Langhorne.

EVENT SCHEDULE

Friday November 2, 2001 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm, there will be a wine and cheese reception and book signing to welcome James to our community. The site of the event is the beautiful Wellness Center of Doylestown Hospital, located on 611 (Easton Road) in Warrington, PA.

Saturday November 3, 2001 10:00 am – 12 pm, James will present a workshop for adults and children, called The Family Peacemaking Workshop. It will be held at Pebble Hill Church at 320 Edison-Furlong Road, Doylestown, PA.

Saturday November 3, 2001 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm James will offer a workshop for adults entitled: "The Mystical Teachings of the Prayer of St. Francis". It too will be held at Pebble Hill Church.

That evening at 7:30 pm, James will offer The Peace Concert at Langhorne Presbyterian Church on Bellevue and Gillam Avenue in Langhorne, PA. The "Cloth of Many Colors" will be displayed at this moving musical performance.
